In case of several cancellations there will be a bulletin that will define the maximum of supplementary points.

For participants from countries which don't host an AARC/AART-Rally, the same rallies will count as abroad events as will be the case for teams with an Austrian license.

For the AARC/AART will be valid:

In case of 8-9 events

In case of 6-7 events

If fewer than 6 event are held

the 6 best results

the 5 best results

all results

Only drivers who took part in at least 3 (three) events will be taken into consideration for the final overall classification.

Co-Driver Trophy:

Registered Co-Drivers receive the same amount of points as their AARC-registered driver.

The best three Co-Drivers will receive trophies at the prize-giving at the end of the season.

It is possible at any point to change the driver and / or switch from AARC to AART.

Other:

There will be a separate classification for drivers born after December 31.12.1996 (Junior-Classification).

There will be trophies from first to third place at the prize giving at the prize giving at the end of the season.

Car change:

Participants are allowed to change the car which they entered at the start of the season as well as the group during the season. In this case the participant receives the points achieved in the group- and overall classification plus supplementary points, in the classifications, corresponding to the vehicle.

Art.06 – AWARDS & possible prize money

Awards (Trophies) and other prizes provided by sponsors will be handed over to the award winners at the end of the season during the AARC - prize giving ceremony. The venue and the participation modalities will be published by the organizer via a separate communication on the AARC website www.alpeadriarallyclub.eu Prize money will be paid out to the winning person during the prize giving ceremony.

Attribution of awards:

The top three in the groups of AARC/AART alike will be awarded with trophies.
In case of less than three teams in one group, these teams will be classified in the nearest group.
Overall and group winners will be the driver/co-driver combination who have achieved the highest number of points out of all valid events.

The overall winner of AARC receives the title „AARC CLUBCHAMPION“

The overall winner of AART receives the title „AART CLUBCHAMPION“

The overall winner of the Junior-Classification receives the title „AARC JUNIOR CLUBCHAMPION“

The overall winner of the Co-Drivers'-Trophy receives the title „AARC/AART CO-DRIVER'S CLUBCHAMPION“

Art.07 - RESULTS / APPEALS / PARITY ON POINTS

For the 2023 season no event organiser is obliged to publish a separate AARC or AART classification. It also is not planned that the AARC/AART-winners will receive trophies at the event prize-giving. Should a rally organiser decide to do it, it is a voluntary act.
The classification will be produced exclusively by the organising club on the basis of an approval-free Club Championship and will be published on the AARC homepage.

The point standings will be updated within one week after the event and will be published on the AARC-Homepage www.alpeariarallyclub.eu.

Appeals against results must be presented by the driver in written form to the organizer within one week's time after the event. It's the organizer's responsibility to judge upon and to decide appeals. In case of parity on points in the overall or in a group classification the victory will be awarded to the driver who was better placed in the majority of events. If the parity remains the driver who has been classified in more events than the opponent will get the victory. In case of a further parity the result of the first rally of the season will be decisive.

Art.08 - ADVERTISING

The participants are obliged to attach the official Club- and Sponsor-stickers to defined positions on the car. The organizer will provide the drivers with these stickers for free. The precise positions to attach the stickers will be published at least two weeks prior to the respective event on the AARC-Homepage www.alpeadriarallyclub.eu or send via E-Mail. At each event the organizer is allowed to request photographic material as a proof of the correct affixing of the stickers. If the stickers are not, or just partially, affixed, no points will be awarded to the driver at the event in question. If a driver is reluctant to affix the stickers he has to communicate his decision to the organizer at the latest one week prior to the event and has to attach to the letter a receipt of payment which amounts to 3 (three)times of the AARC entry fee.

Art.09 – FINAL CLAUSE

Every change of date and/or a cancellation of an event valid for the AARC will be published at the AARC Website www.alpeadriarallyclub.eu
Events are exclusively stated by the organizer and will be published on the Website. In case of issues or disputes concerning the interpretation, the regulations in German language will be consulted. These regulations may only be altered by an implementing provision (Bulletin) which will be published on the AARC-Website www.alpeadriarallyclub.eu.
